Deliverable #1

Primary Text:

Puppies. 🐶

They're teensy, tiny, four-legged, fluffy, cute, funny, cuddly CHAOS AGENTS! 💣

They pee 💧 and poop 💩 .... a lot. We can't change that (sorry, not sorry).

What we can change is what to DO about it.

Enter: The Reusable Puppy Pad! ♻️

Our puppy pads have been tested by thousands of puppies and their overwrought, sleep-deprived, day-drinking, pee and poop cleaning humans.

This is why we know they're the PERFECT pad to soak up your free-wheelin' mischief maker's puddles.

We're completely MUTTS about puppies and these pee-pads and we think you'll be too!

What's not to love? Instead of covering the entire house with single-use pieces of rubbish for the duration of the toilet training, you can cover the floor and furniture with eco-friendly, colorful, washable, triple-stitched, waterproofed, washable fabric instead. 🎨

You'll thank us!

If you haven't switched to reusable pads yet, we get it. Mistakes happen. No need to terrier-yourself up about it. 😊

But you can fix that right now by going here 👉👉 [\[LINK\]](#)

We must be barking mad because we've decided to throw caution to the wind and have slapped a 50% OFF discount for TODAY only (plus FREE shipping).

See you on the bark side!

P.S. We donate [\[PERCENT\]%](#) of the total of every order to charity.

Deliverable #2

Primary Text:

Coming up with the best doggone puppy pads wasn't easy.

But we thought anything's paws-ible, right? 😊

Having a puppy is great but they're pee 💧 and poop 🐾 machines. And they're great at parting us with our hard-earned dollars...

So we asked ourselves: what if we could save money and reduce waste at the same time? ♻️

At Puppy Pads we love our puppies and our planet. That's why we created the "ulti-mutt" eco-friendly alternative to disposable puppy pads.

The average puppy goes through 200+ puppy pads during their training period. 🐶 That's a lot of puppy pads that have ended up in landfills across the world 🌍 and a lot of dollars flying out the door 💸 too.

Imagine for a moment the environmental impact of going reusable? It's a no-brainer.

Our pads are ZERO waste, leakproof, soft not ruff 😊 and 100% washable.

If you haven't switched to reusable pads yet, we get it. Mistakes happen. No need to terrier-yourself up about it.

But you can fix that right now by going here 🖱️🖱️ [\[LINK\]](#)

Getting ready to PARTAYY and worried about showing the Jiggly bits? 😬

Bow down, witches coz Slimming Cami Shaper is here! 🧙‍♀️

It's a Push-up bra, Cami top and Shapewear all rolled into one. With 5 zones of super comfy compression, it's easy to rein the "jiggling trouble spots" all in one go!

No matter what's planned for the day or night ahead, this little number can be relied upon to make a girl feel so secure she'll forget she's wearing it. 🙄

The features we can't stop talking about:

- 💎 Cloud-like fabric that's like being naked but all the wobbly bits are held together and can't escape 😏
- 💎 Comfy compression for that hourglass look that reduces waistlines and flatten tummies 🕒
- 💎 Hip hugging comfort to soothe and smooth love handles and muffin tops
- 💎 The bra has removable pads so boob coverage is negotiable ... sometimes you gotta let the girls roam free, right!? 😏
- 💎 Dreamy seamless design fits with any piece in the wardrobe.
- 💎 Bonus back support!!!! WHAT!?!?

Ready to shake your boo-ty and have it stay in one place!? 🧙‍♀️🧙‍♀️

Remember 2020? When DISASTER STRUCK, I thought it was all over. No longer could I cruise the isles of my favorite yarn stores lovingly touching and cuddling my favorites.

How could I go on? I was doomed. 🤖

So, instead of getting angry (picture me with cleaver in hand 🗡️)...

... I glided like a swan into problem-solving mode and Darn Yarn was born 🧶

Just so you know .... we ain't some big 😐 corporate-y 😐 ecomm store 😐😐😐 that 😐 must 😐 remain 😐 boring.

Picture this: GOD sips her cocktail 🍸 whilst surveying the internet.

She looks very pleased.... (don't stress, this isn't a post about God or even Ryan Gosling — her second in command).

In an age when there are more options than ever, most of the population are just drifting along, trying not to get COVID.

But not us. The crafty ones. We've been busy making our ARTISANS OF YARN exhausted! 😩

At Darn Yarn, we dared to break the mold and try something less obvious and bring indie and small-batch dyers to the fore...

The world (aka boring ecomm giants) threw some serious side-eye thinking we'll never make it!

But we proved them wrong! (muwhahaha cue evil laugh) 🧙

How?

Our fun, funky, and gorgeous yarns to the world and deliver them straight to your house. Each one is hand-dyed with love by someone who adores it. ❤️ Promise.

We're fun, fancy and luxe but entirely reasonable when you think about all the love that's been dyed right into the DNA of everything inside our store. 🧡💚💙💛 Sure, we're not the cheapest store.... But neither is Apple and people still line up for days just to get in the front door.

Now might be a good time to fetch the daiquiri mix . . . and maybe a credit card. 🍸 🇺🇸

This ain't your typical yarn barn.

We take zany, fun, indie artisans and turn them into slaves. 🤪

Hahahaha not really.

Over here at Darn Yarn we're not that mean...

During the day we ask ourselves loads of questions.

Things like, "Where do pelicans go at night?", "Is a hotdog a sandwich?" and "What are the merits of toilet paper being over versus under??"

World-class questions, right?

Actually, they're just the kinds of questions you ask yourself when you're a weirdo.

All nonsense aside though, there is another question we ask ourselves a lot:

"where do we find the best indie and small-batch dyers in the world?"

Lucky for you we worked it out!

After searching the planet 🌍 we've come up with the bestest, most talented, independent artists who create glorious colors and deliver the best DARN YARN this side of Jupiter.
